WINERY IN TUSCANY FOR SALE (SIENA) - ITALY The winery for sale boasts a dominant hillside location, set on a hill that is all owned by the company. From a geographical point of view it is strategic in the best possible position as the entrance overlooks the cassia consular, and 2 km from the entrance to the freeway Siena - Florence that are 15 and 20 minutes respectively and at the same time once you cross the gate is isolated and enjoys the best peace and tranquility. Halfway between Florence and Siena, along the ancient consular Cassia, a few minutes from Monteriggioni and San Gimignano, in the territory of Chianti, there is the 43-hectare Wine Farm, cultivated with vineyards and olive groves, placed on a beautiful hill above the old walls of Staggia Senese. We are in Poggibonsi in the province of Siena in Tuscany, located in the territory of the Upper Val d'Elsa in the western outskirts of the Chianti Hills, where the cultivation of vines and olive trees are widespread. The company specializes mainly in the production of quality red wines that varies from vintage to long-aging wines. Completing the picture of the wines, a vintage white and a chianti Vinsanto produced with the classic method or withering of the grapes. The company is equipped with a winery specializing in winemaking and aging with modern and state-of-the-art equipment that are necessary for quality production. With regard to the mechanical equipment for the work in the vineyard and in the fields in general, the company is equipped with 4 tractors with all the related tools for autonomous management. The winery produces Chianti wine, olive oil, Vinsanto and Grappa in addition to various types of cereals, there are also uncultivated areas that in spring cover themselves with poppies. Suggestive trails through this area lead to adjacent estates. Vineyards, olive trees and orchards surround the immense surrounding area. The harvest is done by hand and the harvested grapes are immediately transported to the nearby winery located in the center of the farm, where with the latest technologies, wines are obtained, aiming for the best quality. The small quantities produced allow you to follow all the stages of processing scrupulously. The winery is run by the family and you can buy bottles or bulk wine on site. The property comprises 42.5 hectares and is composed
