We are in one of the most exclusive areas of San Casciano dei Bagni. This beautiful villa will be obtained from the recovery of an ancient ruin that will be demolished and completely rebuilt. The project provides for the construction of a single-family dwelling with the living area on the ground floor and the sleeping area, with 4 rooms, upstairs. There are top-notch finishes that can of course be customized at run time. The price includes the layout of the exterior and the swimming pool, the opportunity of a finished "key in hand" item. The ruin is for sale in the current state in which it is located, for information and photos see our ref. 154
