The 3-star hotel near Siena is an oasis of peace and tranquility immersed in nature and history. the 3-star hotel near Siena is Immersed in nature and history, this hotel in a strategic position a few kilometers from Siena is located in an ancient fortified medieval village from the 1200s along the Via Francigena. Completely renovated in a rustic-elegant style, it offers 25 rooms with attention to the smallest details with wooden beams and wooden finishes. Admire the splendid landscape until you see Siena in all its beauty from the rooms. The restaurant located inside a cave with a barrel vault is ideal for events such as weddings, meetings and conferences, it offers an elegant garden with a 900 m2 panoramic terrace for summer dinners. The 1200m2 car park is convenient for hotel guests. An excellent opportunity for those looking for an investment in a well-established hotel-restaurant business. Book your holiday in Tuscany now or contact us for more information on the activity."
