Prestigious 17th-Century Farmhouse with Panoramic Pool and Annex – Castiglione del Lago Property Description
Elegant 17th-century stone farmhouse, completely renovated in 2002, located in the municipality of Castiglione del Lago, in a dominant position on the border between Umbria and Tuscany, a few kilometers from Lake Trasimeno. The property is completely independent, immersed in the quiet of the countryside, with a private panoramic swimming pool, a fenced garden of approximately 1 hectare and open views of the hills, with glimpses of the lake. The main farmhouse measures approximately 280 square meters, with an annex of approximately 70 square meters adjacent. The renovation preserved the original architectural features, highlighting wooden beams, travertine ceilings, traditional materials, and double-glazed wooden window frames. Access is via a short dirt road in excellent condition, passable with any vehicle.
